

January Artist of the Month Keyte Marui

Keyte was born in Kobe Japan and graduated from Kobe University, majoring in language and art. She came to the United States in 1955. While living in Hawaii for sixteen years, Keyte become interested in photography and pursued a career in the field.

While joining The Carmel Foundation in 2000 she met Connie Georis, leader of the Needlecraft Group who talked Keyte into joining the group. From there, Keyte joined the Garden Group and the Woodcarvers.

Keyte, a nature lover, is currently a docent with California State Parks and a Monterey County docent photographer.

Keyte's exhibit reflects the beautiful sunrises that she sees from her balcony every morning.
