

Artist of the Month

Carol Harrison's Fine Arts Lab

The Carmel Foundation provides a huge, bright room for artists. There they find a retreat to spread out their work and enjoy an afternoon of painting. All medias are encouraged: oil, acrylic, watercolor, pen and ink, pastel, and even the pencil. The afternoon is rather quiet, but conversations of art history, critiques on gallery openings, discussion from Renaissance to contemporary ripple through the room. They meet each Tuesday afternoon from 1:30-4:00pm. It is more like a college lab than a classroom. Artists can come and go as they please. It's free to all who are current members of The Carmel Foundation.

Please note: The Carmel Foundation receives a 30% commission from the sales resulting from this show. Your patronage of these artists will in turn benefit the Seideneck Fund of The Carmel Foundation, which supports all art related activities of The Carmel Foundation. Please see Gilda Soule, in the Administration Building, if you are interested in purchasing a painting.
